

UNIVERSITY OF NORTHERN IOWA ACCEPTANCE FEE POLICY

The $320 acceptance fee is specific to the term for which you accept your offer of admission. If you change your term of entry to a new academic year, you will be assessed this fee again. This fee is not transferable.

Of the total amount, $250 is applied toward the New Student Programs/Matriculation fee. The remaining $70 is an advance payment on your university bill. If you contract for university residence halls, your $70 advance payment will be used to pay your non-refundable $25 housing application fee and $45 housing prepayment. If you do not contract for university residence halls, your $70 advance payment will be used as a prepayment on your tuition and fees.

If you cancel your admission, your $320 acceptance fee may be partially refundable, depending upon the date by which the Office of Admissions receives your notice of cancellation. If admission is offered after the deadline for cancellation, the acceptance fee is non-refundable. If you choose to cancel housing but still plan to attend UNI, the remaining $45 will stay on your account as an advance payment.

Cancellations must be received in writing or through the online cancellation form:
